Come to Ft. Myers

June 14th

See our annual Hibiscus Show

at Garden Center

Visit our Nurseries - Many fine Hibiscus plants in many varieties.

Visitors always welcome. Phone - Westmore 6-1350

Everglades Nursery, Inc.

McGregor Blvd.

Ft. Myers, Florida

SORRY, NO SHIPPING

NEW REGISTRATIONS

In line with the standard procedure, notice is hereby given that the following registrations have been applied for:

ANGELITA - By Anton Kuhn, Miami, Florida.

Single, crested to 8 inches in diameter; medium texture; Crimson (824/2); small gray-white zone (no number); body of petals Yellow Ochre (07); 4 inch style with 1½ inch ball shaped crest on end - this crest is made up of long, curled petaloids and has the appearance of a huge chrysanthemum; Oriental Red (819/2) stigma pads.

Vigorously growing, medium height bush with dard green leaves, of medium size; Cordate in shape, Apiculate tips, and crenated margins; heavy blooming, one day flower.

DUTCH VERMILION - By Anton Kuhn, Miami, Florida.

Single to 9 inches in diameter; medium texture, Ruffled and partly crepey, fully overlapped petals; Throat is Crimson (22), Zone is Neyron Rose (623); Body of petal is Dutch Vermilion (717/3); Style is Neyron Rose (623); Stigma Pads are Turkey Red (721); Radial veins are Neyron Rose (623).

Tall, vigorous growing bush, with medium green and medium size leaves, cordate in shape; apiculate tips and crenate margins; Good blooming, two day flower.

PINK GIANT - By Anton Khun, Miami, Florida.

Single to 11 inches in diameter; medium texture, slightly crinkled and ruffled and partly overlapped petals; Spirea Red Zone (025/0); Base of Throat and lateral half is Current Red (821); other lateral half is Grayish-white (no number); Body of petals is Solferino Purple (26/1); other lateral half is Shell Pink (516). Fringes are not noticeable.

Upright, vigorous growing bush; medium size and green leaves of medium texture; ovate in shape; apiculate tips; and crenate margins; Partial reniform shape here too. Good blooming, full day flower.